21 Civ. 4668 (AT)

ORDER

On July 12, 2021, the Court directed counsel for all parties to submit a joint letter and a jointly proposed case management plan after consulting the Court's Individual Practices and model case management plan and scheduling order. ECF No. 7. On July 23, 2021, the parties submitted their proposed case management plan. ECF No. 11. However, the deadlines requested by the parties for initial disclosures and completion of fact and expert discovery, among others, are significantly longer than the Court's typical practices, and the parties have not provided any explanation of unique circumstances meriting additional time. Similarly, the proposed plan omits a number of deadlines and disclosures the Court requires from the parties, including some interim discovery deadlines, the parties' use of alternative dispute resolution mechanisms, and the parties' best estimate of the length of trial. Accordingly, by August 3, 2021, the parties will submit a revised proposed case management plan that 1) provides all information requested by the Court's model plan; and 2) either conforms to the timeframes stipulated by the Court's model plan, or provides explanations as to why the parties seek an alternative timeframe. In addition, by August 3, 2021, the parties shall submit a joint letter addressing (1) a brief description of the case, including the factual and legal bases for the claim(s) and defense(s), (2) any contemplated motions, and (3) the prospect for settlement, in compliance with the Court's order of July 12, 2021.

SO ORDERED.
